

- I. POLICY: John Carroll University (the University) provides an academic environment that encourages civic discourse in order to enrich and invigorate the educational experience for all members of the campus community. The University is committed to the free expression of political views by members of the campus community and to the value of discourse and debate as a critical part of the higher education experience, within the limitations established by law for tax-exempt organizations.

- II. PURPOSE: As a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (link: <https://www.irs.gov/charities-non-profits/charitable-organizations/exemption-requirements-501c3-organizations>)

B. Political Activities Whether an activity is permissible depends on the

John Carroll University. The use of John Carroll's facilities does not constitute an endorsement of any political candidate or of the views

